

IN SOCIETY

ENJOY THE EVENING.

A very delightful time was spent by the young women of the Beta Alpha Tau Club who were invited to meet with Miss Kathryn Desmond at her home in State line street last evening. It was the second of the post-Lenten parties and all the members but one were present. The evening was passed enjoyably with cards and music until ten o'clock when the guests were invited into the dining room and served with a dainty luncheon. The refreshments were served in two courses. The arrangements were not definitely made for the next meeting which will occur on the evening of May 6th. The hostess will be named later. Miss Elsa Masaphol, Miss Lydia McMahon, Miss Therese Dorsey, Miss Genevieve Hastings, Miss Beatrice Hansen and Miss Lesmond were the members present last evening.

CHURCH DEDICATION WAS A MEMORABLE EVENT

The dedication of the new St. Stanislaus Catholic church at 150th and Magoun avenue, East Chicago, Sunday afternoon was attended by an immense throng, who were properly inspired by the impressive ceremonies which accompanied the dedication. At 2:30 the procession headed by the police and fire department in a body formed at the church and marched to St. Mary's church where Bishop Alerding of Ft. Wayne was waiting to receive them. After meeting the bishop, that ecclesiastic was escorted to the scene of the dedication by the procession, composed of societies from South Chicago, Hammond, West Hammond, Hegewisch, Whiting, Indiana Harbor and East Chicago. Immediately on arriving at St. Stanislaus church the bishop performed the dedication ceremony. This was followed by a sermon delivered by Father Wojtalowicz of South Chicago after which the bishop confirmed 250 children of St. Stanislaus parish, about equally divided between boys and girls. After the confirmation came the benediction which closed the exercises of the day.

It was estimated that between three and four thousand people were present at the dedication. There were 25 visiting priests from all over northern Indiana.

The building which was erected to be used as both a church and school was built by J. H. McClay of Hammond and cost about $40,000. Work was begun on it last May and the corner stone was laid June 23rd of last year. The church proper occupies the main floor while the class rooms are situated on the third floor and in the rear of the church. It is the most pretentious church building in the whole district. Father Rudnik the pastor is to be congratulated on his energy and ability to supply such a magnificent structure for his congregation.

In Whiting will be opened May 1st. His many friends in Hammond extend him best wishes and congratulations.

MASON-KOLB NUPTIALS.
Mr. and Mrs. Matthias J. Kolb arrived in Hammond yesterday and will spend a week visiting friends and relatives after which they will go to Whiting to make their home. They will be at home to their friends after May 1st. The marriage of Miss Philomena Mason and Matthias J. Kolb was a pretty ceremony of Tuesday, April 16th. Their marriage was solemnized at nine o'clock in St. Roman's Catholic church of Jonesboro, Ark. The nuptial high mass of the Catholic church was read by the Rev. Father F. Strobel in the presence of a large gathering of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The ring ceremony was used. Mr. Frederick Falk presided at the pipe organ and played a program of beautiful music during the ushering of the guests. He accompanied the vested choir who sang several bridal anthems. Miss Helen Mason, a sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Leonard Kolb of Hammond, a brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were John Mason and Joseph Mason. The bride wore a very beautiful costume of ivory white duchess satin and lace. She wore a large picture hat of white lace. Her flowers were brides roses and lilies of the valley and she carried an arm bouquet of them. Miss Mason, as maid of honor, was gowned in white satin and lace and wore a pretty white lace hat. She carried an arm bouquet of pink Klarnay roses.

Following the ceremony at the church the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mason. The tables were beautifully appointed in green and white. Brides roses and lilies of the valley used with masses of pretty greenery decorated the tables. The same pretty colors were used for decorating the tables for the dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. Mason entertained at six o'clock Tuesday evening. The bride party and a number of relatives and friends were guests. Mr. and Mrs. Kolb remained in Jonesboro until Thursday to attend a dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. T. X. Keller were host and hostess to a dancing party at the Elks home given in their honor Wednesday evening. The bride was honored with dinners, luncheons and parties before her marriage. Mrs. Kolb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mason one of the prominent families in Jonesboro, Ark. She is a graduate of the Visitation Academy at Springfield, Mo. She is an accomplished musician and for a number of years was organist at St. Roman's Catholic church. She has returned home from Lowell and Shelby, Ind., where they have been the guests of Mrs. Charles Merryweather during the past week end. KNIGHTS FROM REGION VISIT HAMMOND

Receive Many Compliments From State Deputy on Their Activity.

Two hundred Knights of Columbus from Hammond, Whiting, East Chicago, Gary and the surrounding country representing Unity Council of Hammond and St. Thomas Council of Gary gathered at Hammond last night for a visit with William Fox, the state deputy.

Mr. Fox complimented the K. C.'s of this region upon their progressiveness and activity, and in an address outlined a future program of activity for the Knights in which he laid emphasis on the insurance feature of the order. He also told of the comprehensive plans that are being worked out for the Washington excursion for the unveiling of the Columbus statue on June eight.

Grand Knight Joseph Roy of Unity Council turned the gavel over to district deputy J. J. O'Callahan of East Chicago for the evening. Forceful talks on matters of interest to the Knights of Columbus were made by Father E. T. Seroczynski of St. Casimir's church of Hammond; Atty. D. J. Moran of Hammond; John A. Brennan of Gary; John Kirk, Grand Knight of St. Thomas council Gary; J. W. Calahan of Hammond, who is a member of Calumet council Chicago and John J. Malloy of Hammond. Other Knights who were called upon responded extemporaneously in shorter talks, while a music and entertainment program was carried out by some of the knights. The cordial neighborly feeling existing between Unity St. Thomas councils was a matter of frequent comment and felicitation. Gary sent a strong representative delegation to the special meeting.
